THE LAWS AND REGULATIONS

RELATIVE TO THE

MICHIGAN STATE LIBRARY.

EXTRACTS FROM THE LAWS OF THE STATE RELATIVE TO THE LIBRARY.

SECTION 1. The People of the State of Michigan enact, That the State library shall be kept in the room in the capitol which it now occupies until some other provision shall be made in reference thereto. It shall consist of the books, pamphlets, pictures, maps, charts, and documents of every description now belonging to the same, together with all such others as it may acquire by gift, purchase, exchange, or otherwise. The members of both houses of the legislature and the executive and judicial officers of the State shall at all times have free excess thereto, under such rules and regulations as may be made for the governing of the library. The governor, the joint committee on the State library, and the State librarian shall make and execute, modify, and amend such rules and regulations, not conflicting with the statutes governing the library, as they may deem proper, and also rules prescribing penalties and fines for any violation thereof. Such rules and regulations when adopted, shall remain in force until modified or amended.

SEC. 4. Before any member of the senate, or of the house of representatives, or of the convention to revise the constitution, or other officer or employé of the State who may be authoized by the rules of the State library to draw books therefrom, shall receive their pay in full, it shall be necessary for such member, officer, or employé to obtain and exhibit a certificate from the State librarian, stating that such member, officer, or employé has returned all books he may have drawn, if any, from the State library. It shall be the duty of all the State officers and heads of departments, before a final settlement with any employé in their respective departments, that may resign or be discharged, to require such employé to obtain and exhibit the certificate above referred to, to the officers in charge of their respective departments.

Public Acts, 1881, No. 169.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE STATE LIBRARY, ADOPTED BY THE GOVERNOR, JOINT COMMITTEE ON THE STATE LIBRARY, AND THE STATE LIBRARIAN.

RULE I.

The library shall be kept open every day except Sundays and the legal holidays.

During sessions of the Legislature, Supreme Court, and of Constitutional Conventions, the hours shall be from 8 o'clock A. M. to 9 P. M. At other times, from 8 o'clock A. M. to 12 M., and from half past 1 to 5 P. M. On Saturdays to 4 P. M.

RULE II.

The State Library is one of reference, and not a circulating library.

RULE III.

The Librarian and Assistant shall be constant in their attendance upon the Library during the hours it shall be directed to be kept open, and shall perform such other duties as may be imposed by law or by the rules and regulations governing the Library.

RULE IV.

All persons are permitted to visit the Library and examine and read the books and magazines.

RULE V.

Members and officers of the Legislature; State officers and clerks in the several departments; Judges of the Supreme Court; resident members of the Board of Regents, and members of State Boards; the President of the Agricultural College, and the Superintendent of the State Reform School, and school for the Blind, who apply in person for books for their own especial use, shall be permitted to take from the Library any book or publication belonging thereto, excepting such as are books of reference, or on account of their value or rarity are by rule excluded from circulation.

RULE VI.

Any person wishing to obtain any book for perusal or reference in the general Library must make application at the desk of the Librarian. The books thus received must not be taken from the Library, but be returned to the Librarian's desk, otherwise the person will remain responsible for the book. The Librarians will exercise a proper discrimination as to the delivery of such books as they may judge liable to be injured. Manuscripts, rare and valuable books and plates are excluded from this rule; they will be shown only on special application to the Librarian, and under such regulations as the circumstances of each case may in his or her judgment require.

RULE VII.

No book can be taken from the Library, until its title and the name of the person taking it have been registered by the Librarian. A receipt must also be given by the person taking the book.

RULE VIII.

No book shall be taken from the seat of government, and no person shall take more than two books at the same time, or retain them from the Library for a longer period than two weeks.

Duplicate copies of laws and documents kept in the Library for the use of the members of the Legislature, can be borrowed by the members for use during the session.

RULE IX.

The following books shall be deemed books of reference, to wit: All the books in the Law Department; and in the general Library, all law books, dictionaries, encyclopædias, manuals, directories, registers, etc., newspapers, maps and engravings, pamphlet volumes, unbound magazines, and books which are valuable on account of their cost, rarity or antiquity.

RULE X.

During the sessions of the Legislature or of the Supreme Court, the Governor, Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and Judges of the Supreme Court, may take to any room in the Capitol any law book or book of reference; and lawyers in attendance on the Supreme Court, in the Capitol, will be permitted to take such law books as they may wish into the Supreme Court room. But all books of reference must be returned within two days.

RULE XI.

No public officer or other person privileged to draw books, shall extend the privilege to others, or draw books from the Library for the purpose of loaning them to others. Any person violating this rule shall forfeit his own privilege to take books from the Library.

RULE XII.

Any person taking any book, map, or other publication from the Library, shall be liable for all damages done thereto while in his or her possession, which damages shall be assessed by the Librarian, and paid to him or her by the person taking such book, map, or other publication.

Books must be handled with care. Leaves of books must not be turned down, and no marks, with ink, pencil, or anything, made on the margins.

RULE XIII.

No person except the Librarian or assistants shall be permitted to take from or replace in the case, any book, map, or other publication.

RULE XIV.

Any member of the Legislature having in his possession, any book, map, or other publication belonging to the Library, shall return the same four days before the adjournment of the Legislature.

RULE XV.

Three days before the adjournment of the Legislature, the Librarian shall report to the Senate and House of Representatives, the name of each member of the Legislature who has not returned all books, maps, or other publications taken out of the Library by such member, and settled and paid all accounts for fines, for injuring such books or otherwise.

RULE XVI.

Officers and clerks in the several departments, must return all books in their possession, before leaving their position as an officer or employé of the State.

RULE XVII.

If on notice to any person that the time for which any book or books have been drawn from the Library by such person has expired, or if any person shall have in his or her possession any book or other article belonging to the Library, and shall neglect to return such book or other article to the Library for more than three days after such notice, such person shall be liable to pay to the State a sum equal to the value of such book or other article, which value shall be estimated at the cost of replacing the same.

RULE XVIII.

No person shall be allowed access to the Library at any time except in the presence of the Librarian or assistants.

RULE XIX.

Any person violating the rules of the State Library may be prohibited by the State Librarian from the use and privileges of the Library.
